The North United.

The present state of public sentiment in the loyal States is most gratifying. Never since the attack upon Fort Sumter has there been a time when the disposition to prosecute the war was so determined, hearty and united. Democrats and republicans, abolitionists and conservatives, all save a few miserable rebels at heart, who love slavery more than the country and its liberties are joined hand in hand in efforts for the suppression of the rebellion, and the overthrow of the ungodly traitors and conspirators who are seeking the destruction of the Union. The causes of the present harmony and earnestness we have not time to discuss, it is enough that they exist, and are causing well founded hopes that the day of victory and triumph draws nigh. The recent speeches of John Van Buren, and others who lately led the conservative ranks, are arousing a most wholesome and active patriotism, and preparing the way for more energetic blows against the common foe. We hail all these indications of united and zealous activity in behalf of the Union, and trust that speedily it will be our privilege to chronicle the grand results of this revised and magnified patriotism.

LETTER FROM SECRETARY SEWARD.—The following letter was written in reply to an invitation to be present at a Union meeting in New York:

Sir: I regret that I cannot attend your meeting on Monday evening. Go on and organize your Union League. Write out the bond in a bold, broad, unmistable hand. Let whomsoever will, be they old or young, of either sex, of whatever nation, religion or race, sign it. Let each subscriber take a certificate of membership, frame it in the costliest manner he can afford, suspend it conspicuously in his saloon or in his cabin, preserve it with the care a miser bestows on his gold, and bequeath it at his death to whomsoever he loves best. This diploma will grow in value as years roll away, and happy generations succeed each other in the glorious land we have inhabited.

Only those who are physically active and athletic can secure to themselves the greater honor of having their names borne on the muster rolls of the army and navy of the United States, which I am sure will never be suffered to perish. Those of us to whom this privilege is denied, through age or infirmity, are unworthy of our relationship to the heroes of our country if we do not, with our voices, our votes and our treasure, sustain them in the trials of the camp and the dangers of the field, console their families in their fears and their privations, and willingly prepare wreaths to crown, when their service ends, the returning soldiers of freedom, defenders of the Republic, and saviors of the Union.

I am, Sir, your ob't serv't,
WILLIAM H. SEWARD

CONTRIBUTIONS OF LOYAL AMERICANS IN CHILE FOR OUR SICK AND WOUNDED SOLDIERS.—The sum of $3,658 84 has been subscribed by loyal Americans in Chile in aid of the sick and wounded soldiers of the Union army. The amount has been handed over to Rev. Dr. Bellows, President of the United States Sanitary Commission, who, in acknowledging its receipt, says:

"In thanking, through you, our countrymen in Chile for their generous thoughtfulness for our and their soldiers who may fall sick or be wounded in this greatest battle of humanity, it may be for their satisfaction to know that, contrary to all ordinary cases, devotion to our Government, Union and cause has been proportioned to the distance of the unselfish position of our countrymen—those farthest from the seat of war being nearest in their sympathy and beneficence. The Pacific Coast has given three times as much to the National Sanitary Commission as the Atlantic Coast, and its most distant region—Washington Territory—more in proportion to its inhabitants than any other. Our countrymen in Vancouver and the Sandwich Islands, in England, France, Germany, and India, have shown that no seas, however wide, could shut their eyes to the groans of their suffering patriots in the field."

FOUND HIM OUT.—The Albany Democrat has lost the valuable services of Mr. O'Meara, its publishers having discovered that he was trying "to come the giraffe" over them. They say he broke his contract, and wind up their eulogy upon his virtues, as follows:

He came here with smooth words upon his tongue. He desired, he said, to "locate" himself; "establishment" was what he wanted! He has written that "he is too old to rove, too young to waste his sap on scattered grounds," and has repeatedly declared that Oregon—that Linn county—that Albany was his chosen home for life. He is now about off we presume, to receive the reward he will him "elsewhere." We could tell a rounder story than this if we thought proper to do so, and which he would well understand, but we abstain at this time, and leave our readers to draw their own inferences.

It is curious to notice that those who are most violent in their denunciation of "arbitrary arrests," are the most lukewarm in their support of the war. It would seem that just in proportion as one is tender of the rights of traitors, he is careless of the rights of loyal men; and that in proportion as he declaims against tyranny at the North he looks with complacency upon tyranny at the South.

SAILED.—The steamer Sierra Nevada sailed yesterday morning, at 5 o'clock, direct for San Francisco.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.
BY THE OREGON TELEGRAPH LINE FROM SALEM.

YREKA, April 21.

NEW YORK, April 18.—The Catawba, from Port Royal April 15th, reports that all the Monitors had returned to Port Royal.

Rebel dispatches report that large Federal reinforcements had reached Grenada, Mississippi, and the new plan is to send a large force to each of the three railroads running southward. Gen Grant is to join Rosecrans by water.

Kirby Smith assumes command of the rebel forces west of the Mississippi.

NEW YORK, April 18.—The Herald's dispatches say it is the prevalent opinion to-day that the rebel cavalry which has been waylaying around Bull Run mountains and Culpepper have been surrounded by an expedition sent out by Gen Stahl and their capture is almost certain.

Richmond papers report the arrest and return on Monday of nearly 400 rebel officers.

The Richmond Examiner of the 25th says two regiments of rebels destroyed a Federal camp at Williamsburg—five Federals killed and several wounded.

Fort Mc Gruder has been strengthened by new rifle pits. The Federals shelled the town for three hours. No one hurt.

The Charleston Mercury of April 15th says Fort Sumter, which was somewhat battered, is to day believed to be as strong as when the fight began. We deem it certain that if the attack be renewed again as before and there is good reason to believe it will, the Monitor iron clads will come out the defeated parties with worse results than those of first attempt.

A Fortress Monroe letter of the 19th says, from deserters it is ascertained that Longstreet in person commanded the rebels near Suffolk, also that the greatest portion of the rebel army has withdrawn from the Rappahannock and concentrated in Southern Virginia and North Carolina.

Rebel telegrams dated Charleston April 13th say a few blockaders and the frigate Ironsides are off the bar. They are the only vessels in sight.

NEW YORK, April 18.—Washington dispatches say that those who are in possession of all that is known of the subject of our relations with Great Britain say we have reason to hope that the difficulties will be adjusted and that England is beginning to see the error of her ways.

YREKA, April 21.—We have had a severe storm for the last three days, and the line is working horribly and impossible to do any business over it. Are in hopes to catch up duties to-morrow.

Second Dispatch.

MURFREESBORO, April 20th.—A letter in the Atlanta (Ga.) Intelligencer of the 17th, says that Rosecrans is being reinforced by Grant, and that a great battle will come off within sixty days.

A resolution passed the Georgia legislature that a bill shall be issued, levying a tax of one per cent on one third of all provisions in the State for the benefit of the public service.

LOUISVILLE, April 20.—On Saturday Col Graham attacked the rebels near Gaines, killing seventeen and destroying their camps. Next day he crossed the Cumberland and attacked another rebel encampment, killing 20 and routing the remainder and is now in pursuit. Our loss was one killed.

CHICAGO, April 21.—In the rebel attack on Fayetteville, Arkansas, they took 40 prisoners during a charge of the First Arkansas Cavalry, but finally retired, leaving their dead on the field.

ST LOUIS, April 21.—Additional particulars from Fayetteville say the fight lasted four hours. The rebels were commanded by Gen Cabal, and retreated in disorder towards Mc Zark. Our troops were all recruits, poorly equipped, and without artillery.

WASHINGTON, April 21st.—Official dispatches received from Gen Peck, dated Saturday evening, 8 o'clock, says Gen Beatty, in conjunction with a heavy battery at West Granby, captured six guns and 170 men of the 44th Alabama regiment.

NEW YORK, April 21st.—By the arrival of the Ellen Storry, we have advices from Newbern to the 16th April. Gen Foster ran rebel batteries in broad daylight. His pilot was killed at the wheel. Over 200 shot and shells fired at the vessel, besides volleys of musketry and small arms. Sixteen cannon shot took effect on the steamer.

CHICAGO, April 21.—Cairo reports say that the steamer Silver Moon, from Vicksburg on Friday, says that Thursday night six gunboats and three transports left Young's Point and ran by the Vicksburg batteries. All got through safely but one transport, the Henry Clay, which caught fire opposite the city. It was burned. The gunboat Benton was the only one struck. Our loss was one killed and two wounded. The drumhead of the Forest Queen was injured by coming in contact with one of the gunboats. The damage was very slight. The time of starting until the last shot was fired by the rebels was one hour and a quarter, by which time nearly all had got safely past. A brilliant light was seen on shore, which illuminated the river for two miles, but soon died out. Five hundred shots were fired on both sides, but with what result is not known. Each gunboat and transport had a coal barge in tow.

MURFREESBORO, April 20th.—A telegram from Hurlbutt, at Memphis, reports General Dodge, commanding at Corinth, had attacked the enemy and drove them from Bear river, with heavy loss. Our loss was 100 killed and wounded. We had one piece of artillery dismounted, but saved it. The enemy has been reinforced at Tuscumbia.

NEW YORK, April 20th.—Sutler's letters report that our forces hold the Nansemond river for 16 miles, and have defeated every attempt of the rebels to get in our rear. The rebels expect to bring against us, including reinforcements from Gen. Hill, 60 000 men. The delay of the enemy in making the attack, is as good as reinforcements for our troops.

A Norfolk letter expresses the opinion that there will be a battle at Suffolk as we outnumber the enemy there, and have the advantage of strong entrenchments. Admiral Peck takes the initiative.

FORTRESS MONROE, April 19.—Yesterday the enemy drove back our skirmishers at the Somerton road which is Gen Corcoran's front. They opened with two pieces of artillery. Our force replied and drove them back. Our skirmishers on the south drove the enemy back some miles from our lines. Deserters say the enemy intend making an attack on our lines this week.

The Herald's dispatches dated April 18th, from the Army of the Potomac, say a large force of the enemy have collected in the vicinity of the fords of the Rappahannock, though no attempt has been made to cross.

A Fredericksburg letter, dated April 14th to the Richmond Whig reports a fight at Kelly's Ford 25 miles above Fredericksburg, and says cannonading was heard distinctly at intervals. Six hundred federal cavalry of Stoneman's corps made an effort to cross, supported by infantry, but had not succeeded.

To night's report says the Federals have been massing troops in the vicinity of United States Ford for several days. Yesterday and to day considerable bodies of cavalry and ammunition wagon trains have been moving up the river.

WASHINGTON, April 20.—Richmond dispatches of the 18th have the following: Jackson Mississippi, April 14th.—The enemy's troops at Lake Providence have gone to Vicksburg.

Vicksburg, April 10th.—The fleet is at the river. The York and [illegible] expedition. The Yankees [illegible] Rosecrans still [illegible] Carthage.

The Contract for Carrying Government Freight.

FORT VANCOUVER, April 24th, 1863.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

The following is the truth of the giving of the contract for the Quartermaster's freight for the coming season to the Oregon Steam Navigation Company. The bid of the People's Transportation Company was to deliver freight at Wallula (where the greater portion of the freight will be sent) for $8 per ton paid in legal tender notes—what is now equivalent to about $23 or more in gold. The bid of the Oregon Steam Navigation Company was to deliver freight at Wallula for $20 per ton in gold or its equivalent. It will thus be seen that there could not be wished a more advantageous contract to the Government. It is not true, as Dalles papers say, that the Government freight amounts to $100 000 per annum. It cannot reach a sixth of that amount.

A Dalles paper also says that the Quartermaster's Department pays $100 000 for the wagons and mules of the Oregon Steam Navigation Company. It does not pay but $23 000.

A CORRESPONDENT.

GOLD FOR GREENBACKS ON THE PACIFIC COAST.—Congressmen Sargent and Lovejoy, Callum and Mr Bridges of Oregon have had several interviews with Secretary Chase of late, relative to the expediency of ordering the temporary retention on the Pacific coast of the Federal collections in gold for the purpose of paying it out to those who are employed by Government really equal to what they are nominally but further than this he cannot go. In the meantime Congress is nine months distant, and it is impossible to say what the conditions in gold and currency may occur before it can take any action thereon. The Pacific States must have their share of loss by the rebellion, and so long as you do not have it in devastated lands hundreds of thousands slain in battle, and the multitude of ills which follow in the train of horrid war near at hand, it would appear inevitable that you must have it in the inconvenience and loss of a mixed or depreciated currency. Californians are patriotic, and is in a fair way to have her patriotism tested in a very practical way. It is written that it is sweet to die for one's country, the poet fails to say if it be also sweet to bleed for one's country, but you can try it, and may charge the discount on Government currency to the account of the rebellion.—Cor of the Sacramento Union.

INSOLENT TALK.—Some time last year the Richmond (Va.) Whig spoke of the people of the North in the following insolent manner. In the eyes of that paper the men of the loyal States do not possess one gentlemanly attribute, nor a single talent for war. It said:

The fact is the Yankees are very little better than the Chinese. They lay the same stress upon the jingle of their dollars that the Celestials do on their gongs. Originally endowed with no single amiable art, they have cultivated the arts of money getting and cheating until gain has become their god, and they imagine it to be omnipotent. With money in their pockets, won from a generous and chivalrous race—and multitudinous as Norway rats, they are swollen with conceit, and fancied that they were fit for empire. And yet they do not possess one gentlemanly attribute, nor a single talent that qualifies them for war. Of the very first elements they are destitute. They don't even know how to ride a horse—a talent only to be acquired in youth and gentle associations. And as to arms, ninety nine out of a hundred never shot a gun, and we have it on very good authority that old Scott lost all patience in attempting to teach them how to load a gun. The vile old wretch! He reaps a just reward for his treason and his talents misapplied.

A RECONSTRUCTIONIST.—It appears there is a paper published in northwestern Georgia in favor of a restoration of the Union. It is called the Southerner. This sheet, which the Atlanta Confederacy declares is diminutive in size, circulation, and influence, has had the audacity to propose a restoration of the old Union. There is no doubt of it, for the Confederacy declares it in the world just quoted, and proceeds to rail at the diminutive concern after this wise:

We advise the editor Mr Murray, to go to New England, believing him to be unfriendly to the country in which he lives, and that Massachusetts is the only suitable place for him. He is unworthy a place in the Confederacy. The sooner he gets the latter for him, Butler leave at once and be consistent before being invited to go. In Massachusetts he will be welcomed by great numbers of people of his own way of thinking, and he may be buried. He will be feted and feasted, and his loss is a total loss. The Confederacy rejoices when he loses, and not the Abolitionists whom he affects to despise will feel all this for him. There are fifteen Abolitionists in Massachusetts that there are to one abolitionist in Georgia. Massachusetts is the very place for him, for in no country in all than any of the Confederate States.

Randolph Rogers, the sculptor, is now in Cincinnati, engaged in preparing a bronze figure to surmount the dome of McCook medical building which fell at Springfield.

The last we sold was making at arms port in the act of challenging the approaching party. The surroundings are at an end, but promise excellence. Mr Rogers's large group by the war having finished Crawford's Washington monument in Richmond.

CITY.

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

DARING ROBBERY.—$1,000 REWARD.—A daring robbery was committed in this city, at about 3 o'clock last Saturday night, in the office of Dr Davenport, on Alder between Front and First street The circumstances as related by the Doctor, are about as follows.—The office is divided by a petition into two rooms, one is used as a sitting or consultation room, and the other as a bed room There are two doors in the front of the building the main one entering into the sitting room, and the other into the bed room, the upper half of the shutter of this bed room door is made of sash and glass, and is fastened on the inside with buttons attached to the facing, there are also folding shutters on the outside This door is seldom opened, except when the room is swept, this the Doctor had done early on that evening, but neglected to fasten the door in the usual manner. The Doctor was in and near his office during the whole evening, and at about one o'clock he retired to bed, putting out the lights, and was soon asleep After the lapse of a couple of hours, he was suddenly awakened by some one opening this front door into his bed-room, and before he could raise himself in bed a rough and strong hand grabbed around the throat, accompanied with a low gruff voice, commanding him to lay still and not make a noise, at the peril of his life. The room was quite dark and the Doctor could only faintly distinguish the form of a man standing over him, with a large bowie knife pointed directly at his breast, the point of which he was made to feel rather sharply several times. Two other ruffians then approached the bed and quickly proceeded to pinion his hands behind his back, and tie his feet together with strong chords; they were then about to place a gag in his mouth, but upon the most positive assurance of the Doctor that he would not make a noise, they consented to let his mouth remain free The two who had tied him then hunted round the room until they found his vest, containing the key to the Doctor's large iron safe, which stood in a corner of the sitting room; they then passed through the petition door to where the safe stood, while the first ruffian who had entered the room still remained standing over the Doctor, with the drawn knife, compelling him to lay uncomfortably still. The safe, being of simple construction, was easily opened, and the robbers took therefrom the sum of $4,600 in twenty-dollar gold pieces, $46 in smaller gold pieces, and $40 in greenbacks. After filling the safe and transferring the gold coin to their pockets, they asked the Doctor if that was all the greenbacks he had, and being answered in the affirmative, they then held a short consultation relative to the propriety of taking the greenbacks, but finally came to the conclusion that as the Doctor had furnished them with a pretty large amount of "premium currency," they would console the Doctor by informing him that they would take them at par, which they did, politely bidding him good-night, accompanied with a friendly admonition to keep quite for a half-hour, or the top of his head would be blown off by one of his companions whom they would leave behind to watch him for that length of time. Nothing but money was taken by the thieves. The Doctor was unable to see any but one of the parties, as the room was quite dark, and no light except a small one, which the robbers used while opening the safe and counting out the money. The Doctor remained quiet, as directed, for some 15 or 20 minutes, when, after cautiously peering through the dark, he found the robbers had all left, and after some trouble he succeeded in opening the door and commenced hailoing with all his might, which he continued to keep up for at least 15 minutes before any one came to his rescue, and the first person who did come was the watchman belonging to the lower ward. The sheriff and his deputies, as also the City Marshal and other peace officers were quite active all day yesterday, in search of the robbers, and two persons have been arrested and lodged in jail on suspicion. A few clues were left in the office, from which it is hoped the robbers may be detected.

We are authorized by Doctor Davenport to say, that he will give $1,000 reward to any person or persons who will discover to him the robbers and recovery his money, or in proportion to that amount of any part thereof.

WILLAMETTE THEATRE.—Miss MITCHELL.—The lovers of the drama and scenic representations of natural characters upon theatrical stage, will be pleased to learn that Mr J. P. Dennison has engaged the talented and famed Miss EDITH MITCHELL, who will appear in a favorite piece on to-morrow (Tuesday) evening, notice of which will be given in proper time to-morrow morning. Miss Mitchell has received universal praise wherever she has appeared, especially in the Atlantic States and California, and her levees have been well attended. She is a lady of rare talent, a close student of her profession, and everything she undertakes is played truthfully naturally and with the most fastidious exactitude, and her appearance upon the stage in this city, supported by the favorite troupe previously playing here, will be hailed as a valuable acquisition, and we hope her presence will be greeted by a full house Let all go and see California's favorite.

RECORDER'S COURT.—Business in this Court on Saturday was active and quite firm, closing with three cases. Jas Rochford, arrested for stealing wood, was discharged, after having a jury trial.

J. H. Rowland was brought up for being drunk and disorderly, and in default of paying a fine of five dollars was committed to jail for four days.

John Williams was arrested for being drunk and disorderly, also, for which offense he was fined five dollars. Paid and discharged.

Complaint was made against I A Austin, for furious driving through the streets Trial set for this morning.

AUCTION SALE.—M Mansfield will sell to-morrow, at 10 o'clock, at his Auction Rooms on Front street, a large invoice of crockeryware, groceries, case goods, boots and shoes, and 10,000 pounds of tobacco. Don't forget it.

TO RENT.—Notice is given that the pews of the Episcopal Church of this city, will be rented, today, at 2 o'clock, P. M.

We've All Our Angel Side.

The huge rough stones from out the mine
Unsightly and unfair
Has veins of purest metal hid
Beneath its surface there
Few rocks so bare but that their heights
Some tuney moss plant clings,
And round the peak so dissolute
The sea birds sits and sings
Believe me, too, that rugged souls
Beneath their ruderness hide
Much that is beautiful and good—
We've all our angel side

In all there is an inner depth,
A far off secret way,
Where through the wind vane of the soul
God sends His smiling ray
In every human heart there is
A faithful sounding chord
That may be struck unkindness to me
By some sweet loving word
The wayward soul in time may try
Its earlier thoughts to hide
Some unexpected tone reveals
It hath an angel side

Despised and lone, and trodden down
Dark with the shades of sin,
Deciphering not those halo lights
Which God has lit within
Groping about in almost night
Poor polarized souls they are
Who guess not what life's meaning is,
Nor dreams of Heaven afar
Oh, that some gentle hand of love
Their wayward steps would guide,
And show them that amidst it all
Life hath its angel side

Brutal and mean and dark enough,
God knows some natures are
But He composed mate comes near,
And shall we stand afar?
Our cruse of oil will not grow less
If shaded with a hearty hand,
For words of peace and deeds of love
Few natures can withstand
Love's the mighty conqueror,
Love is the beauteous guide
Love with her beaming eyes can see
We've all our angel side

HEAVY ON GOOD CLOTHES.—A sharp sighted correspondent of the Boston Courier, discoursing of the wonderful products of many contracts, now-a days, tells the following anecdote:

A wealthy ship-broker, who but a year ago was not worth a dollar, went into Stewart's store lately and asked to look at some shawls. The price of one was seven hundred and the other was five hundred dollars. "Well, I'll take a five hundred dollar one," said he. "Yes sir," said the clerk, "that is a very pretty shawl; Mr ——, (mentioning another ship-broker) bought one of them for his wife the other day." "The devil he did," replied the purchaser, "Then I'll take a seven hundred dollar one!" And so the world rolls over, and people have terms of going under, and coming up

Crossing the Fulton Ferry one day, a splendid equipage came on board the boat—prancing steeds, liveried coachman and footman—and an elegant couple. Within was a lady dressed with uncomfortable richness. She was fat, not very fair, and something more than forty. With her, was an unlikely cub of eight or ten years old, whose fine clothes seemed to be as uncomfortable for him as were the gloves right to bursting, upon his mother's hands. Through the open window of the carriage, he espied an apple woman with her basket of fruit. "Mam," cried the youthful aristocrat, "I want an 'arple!" "Hush up! You ain't goin' to have none," replied the tender mamma. "But went I though, by gorry!" said the boy; at the same time throwing himself half way out of the window, and seizing the apple, which he forthwith commenced eating upon. The gentle lady fell back with an air of resignation, exclaiming, "Well, you darned critter, now you've got it, mind you only chaw it, and spit out the skin!"

The coachman and footman looked mortified and winked slyly at the bystanders That's high life in New York City

RICHMOND REASONS WHY GOLD IS SO DEAR IN RICHMOND.—The Richmond Examiner of 16th March, says gold was sold on Saturday at 425 premium, an advance of 200 per cent. within a week. We make the announcement with no design of going into a disquisition on the subject. We simply propose to state briefly some of the most obvious causes which have brought about the result

1. All winter our people believed that peace would come with the spring, and that then there would be a cessation of the issue of Confederate notes. Spring has come, but peace appears more remote than ever. The people can see nothing before them but long years of war and shinplasters.

2. A sudden spring tide of emigration of foreigners is setting from the Confederate States to the United States. These persons are converting all their possessions, be the same great or small, into gold, regardless of the cost. This large and sudden demand up on a drained market must have a marked and immediate effect.

3. The people believe Congress will pass a tax bill, and every one feels that to be the only method by which our redundant currency can be reduced within healthy bounds.

4. Smugglers have increased an hundredfold within the past month Jews and Gentiles are flittering over the border singly and in gangs. These fellows, though they use bank notes and State coupon funds, must have gold, and will pay any price for it

5. Arbitrary impressments in this city by sending provisions up to famine prices and producing something near akin to a panic, have doubtless had some effect in depreciating the money of the Confederacy, but the above are, we believe, the main causes of the unexampled enhancement of the precious metal which we venture to predict will be wholly temporary.

AN INCIDENT OF GEN HOOKER.—A letter from a Massachusetts officer in the army of the Potomac contains the following

I will tell you a true story about General Hooker. The other day a soldier attempted to desert in a boat at Acquia Creek Landing The sergeant of the guard hailed to him to come back. The soldier paid no attention to him. The sergeant fired a shot over his head at him. The deserter laughed. The sergeant fired a second time, hit the man in a vital part, and he died in a few minutes. Some indignation against the sergeant was raised, and the colonel in command placed him in arrest. The matter came to Gen. Hooker's ears, who at once ordered the sergeant's discharge from arrest, and himself wrote him a complimentary letter, telling him that he had done his duty, and assuring him of speedy promotion.

A TERRIBLE CASUALTY.—A young lady, fifteen years of age, whose parents reside about two and a half miles from Grass Valley, was killed day before yesterday afternoon in the following frightful manner The girl named Emma Ransdell, was visiting at an uncle's, near Lincoln, and went out for a horseback ride on the afternoon in question, in company with a small boy, her cousin The road ran where a fence had been, and the horse, stepping into an old post hole, threw the girl, her hoops catching on the horn of the saddle The animal ran a mile-and-a-half, the girl's head, a portion of the way hitting against the fence, alongside of which he ran, crushing it in a horrible manner. Her neck and all her limbs were broken, and when her corpse was found she could hardly be recognized as the same person who, a few moments before, was so beautiful and so full of life.—Marysville Appeal.

LEGAL

U. S. INCOME TAX.

THE LAW CONTEMPLATES THAT EVERY ONE shall pay on all net gains (in excess of $600) derived from any source whatever. A person should deduct all legitimate assessed National, State and County Taxes interest, Losses, Rents, Drayage, &c., necessary to carry on his business, but no Firm, merchant, mechanic or any person, has a right to deduct his own labor or as much expense from his income

The Income Tax is to be paid with income of the year commencing January 1st 1862 so that on the coming 1st December (that is in exactly eight months) all should make up a record of their income gains or profits for that year And as many sources of income such as Dividends and Profits on Bonds and Stocks, Insurance Stock, Savings Banks interest &c., (they having already paid the 3 per cent tax) are not again taxed. It therefore becomes necessary to have a clear record of the sources of income that there may be no dispute with the Assessor

All corporations must deduct the three per centum before declaring their dividends

For Example:

A man in business will make up the net profits of his business for the year and pay the tax on the amount less $600

A man may quite as of his business spent all and even more than his profits, his expenses not ranking as such, will not have to pay any tax on his income (except the $600 And so with a salary all over $600 must be taxed though personal or family expenses equal it all

The Income Tax of the year 1862 is assessable on the first day of May 1863 and is payable on or before the 30th June 1863 And any one neglecting for thirty days after demand by the Collector five per centum will be added to the amount unpaid

Each individual firm or partnership must make up his income separately

From Rev J Newton Brown D D, Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general through distrust of their legitimacy and effects, I feel known of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters prepared by Dr C M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an "ardent" mixture I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility The use of three bottles of them Bitters at the beginning of the present year, with I flowed evident relief and restoration to a degree of health and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before and had almost despaired of regaining I, therefore thank God and my friend for recommending me to the use of them.

Messrs Jones & Evans—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved me life There is no mistake in this It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whom are appended, and who very fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated batteries and under the immediate command of Captain R B Ayres Through the exposure incident upon my arduous duties I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and after seventy two days in the hospital This was followed by great debility heightened by an attack of dysentery, I was then sent home from the White House and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine, from which I landed on the 28th of June Since that time I have been about as I was to the mild I could not retain a spark of vitality for a week, for more I was scarcely able to swallow anything and if I did force a few cool down, it was immediately thrown up again

I called in Dr Cowell to see me, and he pronounced my case one of the most desperate circumstances, and accordingly the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer frankly told me they could do no more for me and advised me to see Jayne's and to make such disposition of my affairs as best suited me. In consequence of my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq, for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them when suffering from great and long continued debility The use of three bottles of them Bitters at the beginning of the present year, which I flowed evident relief and restoration to a degree of health and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before and had almost despaired of regaining I, therefore thank God and my friend for recommending me to the use of them.
